

Exchange of Notes at Seoul February 23, 1995

Entered into force May 24, 1995

(Korean Proposing Note)

Seoul, February 23, 1995

Your Excellency,

I have the honour to inform you that, with a view to facilitating the travel of their nationals between their respective countries, the Government of the Republic of Korea is prepared to conclude with the Government of the State of Israel a visa-waiver Agreement in the following terms:

1. Nationals of either country holding a valid national, diplomatic and official or service passport may enter the territory of the other country without a visa for a period not exceeding ninety(90) days, provided that their intended stay is not for the purpose of engaging in lucrative or paid activities.
2. Nationals of either country who, holding a passport referred to in paragraph 1, intend to stay longer than ninety(90) days in the territory of the other country, are required to obtain a visa in advance from the diplomatic or consular mission of the other country. The above-mentioned visa shall be issued free of charge by the diplomatic or consular mission of the other country.
3. Nationals of either country who, holding a valid diplomatic and official or service passport, are appointed as diplomatic or consular officers of the diplomatic or consular mission of one country in the other country, and members of their families forming part of their households, shall be allowed to enter without a visa the territory of the other country and stay there during the period of their official mission.
4. Nationals of either country proceeding to the territory of the other country shall be subject to the laws and regulations in force in the country of their destination relating to the entry and stay of aliens.
5. Each Government shall reserve the right to refuse leave to enter or stay in its territory to any person whom it considers undesirable under the laws and regulations in force in its own country, as referred to in paragraph 4.

6. Each Government may provisionally suspend the application of this Agreement in whole or in part for reasons of public order, security or health, and such suspension or the lifting of the suspension by one Government shall be notified immediately to the other through diplomatic channels.

If the above provisions are acceptable to the Government of the State of Israel, I have further the honour to propose that the present Note and Your Excellency 's Note in reply to that effect shall constitute an Agreement between the two Governments on this matter, whic shall enter into force ninety(90) days after the date of Your Excellency 's Note in reply and shall thereafter be subject to termination by either Government giving ninety(90) days ' advance notice in writing to the other.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

/Sgd./
